

Courtney Scallan | Senior Associate

T 61 2 9266 3404 | E scallan@bhf.com.au

Practice areas

Defamation and media
Disputes
Employment
Sport

Profile

Courtney joined Banki Haddock Fiora in 2011. She acts in key media litigation including Patricia O'Shane v Macquarie Radio Network Pty Limited & Alan Jones, Mercedes Corby v Network Ten Pty Limited, and Gordon Wood v Harbour Radio Pty Limited/Radio 2UE Pty Limited.

Courtney has also acted in a range of Intellectual Property and employment disputes. She is a member of CAMLA (Communications and Media Law Association) and ANZSLA (Australia and New Zealand Sports Law Association), and is listed on ANZSLA's Legal Contact List.

Courtney is currently completing an LLM in Sports law at the University of Melbourne.

Qualifications

Bond University, LLB 2007

Experience

Advising media, publishing and broadcasting organisations in all aspects of defamation and media law

Defamation litigation proceedings

Appearing in the Federal Court of Australia, New South Wales Court of Appeal, Supreme and District Courts and the High Court of Australia

Unfair dismissal proceedings

Copyright and employment issues

Year of admission

2009