

David Kim | Lawyer

T 61 2 9266 3483 | E kim@bhf.com.au

Practice areas

Defamation and media
Disputes
Corporate and commercial

Profile

David joined Banki Haddock Fiora in 2018. He is a seasoned junior lawyer working in the firm's busy media and defamation practice. He has experience litigating in the Federal Court, as well as in a number of superior State courts, and has defended media clients and journalists in complex defamation cases.

David also has experience working in the firm's commercial and corporate advisory practice and has assisted with setting up not-for-profit entities and advising clients on matters involving AUSTRAC, the ACCC and the TGA.

Qualifications

University of Sydney, BEc LLB (Hons)

Experience

Defamation proceedings in the Federal Court and in the Supreme Courts of New South Wales, Queensland, and Western Australia
Corporations List proceedings in the Supreme Court of New South Wales
External review proceedings in the New South Wales Civil and Administrative Tribunal
Advising businesses on compliance with anti-money laundering, competition, privacy and advertising regulation
Advising not-for-profits on structuring

Year of admission

2018