

Alasdair Doctor | Partner

T 61 2 9266 3423 | E doctor@bhf.com.au

Practice areas

Disputes
Copyright

Profile

Alasdair is a partner in our litigation team, practising primarily in intellectual property and defamation. He also has experience in more general commercial litigation, including consumer law, equity, contracts and corporations.

Alasdair has represented companies and individuals in the Federal Court, Federal Circuit Court and a number of Australian state courts, including on appeals to the Full Federal Court and NSW Court of Appeal. He has been admitted to practice in Fiji, where he has appeared in the appellate division of the Fiji High Court. He is also experienced in all aspects of domain name disputes.

Qualifications

University of Wollongong, BA 2003
Macquarie University, LLB (Hons) 2013

Experience

Federal Court and Federal Circuit Court proceedings concerning copyright and trade mark infringement; including drafting of evidence, pleadings and submissions.
Supreme Court of NSW defamation and equity proceedings, including drafting of evidence and executing costs assessment process

Year of admission

2014